

UP Projects' Call Out: Chair and Trustees

(Voluntary Roles)

DO YOU FEEL
PART OF SOMETHING?

UP Projects Background

UP Projects curates, commissions and produces contemporary art that explores heritage, identity and place, engaging the people of London, the UK and across the globe. We believe in working collaboratively with artists, communities and others to do this.

We run a programme of artist projects and commissions outside traditional gallery spaces as well as delivering cultural strategies, commissions and events with a range of partners.

Established in 2002 by Emma Underhill (Founding Director) we have a 15-year track record of artist-led and partnership approach to working in the public realm. We are an Arts Council England National Portfolio Organisation and became a registered charity in January 2017, currently governed by a Board of seven trustees. Further information about our organisation and the work we do can be found at www.upprojects.com

At this time, we are looking to recruit a new Chair with up to 3 new trustees, to strengthen our board and support the organisation moving forwards. We welcome people who would bring skills and experience that would support the organisation, but of particular interest are people with experience of working within the following areas:

- Marketing, communications and advocacy
- Legal
- Visual arts and design
- Education and learning
- Urban Policy

UP Projects aims is to create a diverse and inclusive working environment which reflects the city we live and work in and the communities and audiences that we engage with. Our recruitment process is open to all and we welcome applications from those who are currently under-represented in the arts sector.

For further information about the Chair and Trustee roles, including details on how to apply please visit www.upprojects.com/opportunities

If you'd like an informal conversation about either role, please contact:
